SPECIALIZES IN ILLUMINATING JESUS IN A RAW AND CREATIVE WAY.

HEADSHOTS & BIO

Gloria Umanah is the founder and executive director of The Ex-Nihilo Collective and an internationally known and sought after communicator and spoken word artist based out of Atlanta, Georgia! In 2016 Gloria turned down a dream opportunity of working with the Federal Bureau of Investigations and instead surrendered to the calling of God upon her life, which led to a life of purpose. Gloria now uses her creativity and unique voice to bring to light the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to students, young adults, men, and women across the world. Through sharing her powerful story of overcoming suicide, anxiety, and a life of fatherlessness Gloria's impactful messages and Spirit filled spoken word poems of hope have reached over 2 million people across the globe. Gloria is a powerful voice rising up in her generation. She is bold. She is Spirit-filled. And she is willing to be the one who stands in the gap for those searching for true freedom. She carries the flame of revival wherever her feet travel as she seeks to see a generation liberated and propelled in the freedom found in Christ, and in Christ alone.

THE EX-NIHILO COLLECTIVE

The Ex-Nihilo Collective is made up of the most talented, next generation spoken word artists and creatives who are on mission to cultivate a creative rhythm to the way the world views God, by illuminating Jesus through words, poetry, and storytelling. The Ex-Nihilo Collective leads in spoken word artistry and communicating the Gospel in a fresh and creative way to those hungry to be reintroduced to Jesus. The Ex-Nihilo Collective travels nationally and internationally to serve schools, churches, and conferences with the ability to write and preform custom to event spoken word pieces, lead churches and organizations in creative direction for their events and conferences, and lead creative writing and spoken word workshops and retreats for writers and creatives around the world. The Ex-Nihilo Collective desires to inspire a culture of creating for the sake of the Gospel by raising up and equipping creatives, leaders, local churches, and communities. The Ex-Nihilo Collective aspires for Jesus to be illuminated above all else.
